

WEDNESDAY 6TH JULY 2022

KENTWELL HALL & LONG MELFORD

A TASTE OF SUFFOLK

Kentwell Hall is one of the finest Tudor moated houses in England, set in 25 acres of its own gardens and parkland, with numerous historic buildings.

There are both formal and informal gardens, a topiary garden and a moat adorned in summer with pink roses. There are two cafes here, where we can have lunch.

Long Melford. In the afternoon we visit the nearby village of Long Melford, which was one of the great Cloth Towns of medieval Suffolk with a correspondingly lavish 'wool' church. It is a delightful place and it has a main street full of independent shops, galleries, antique centres and tearooms.
