

Geography

No.	Question	Answer
1	The river Nile flows into what sea?	Mediterranean
2	What is the capital of Afghanistan?	Kabul
3	Pre-1939 what country was known as Siam	Thailand
4	What river flows through the Grand Canyon?	Colorado
5	Kinder Scout is the highest point in what national park?	Peak District
6	What mountain straddles the Swiss Italian border with Zermatt on the Swiss side and Cervinia on the Italian side?	Matterhorn
7	Thimphu is the capital of which Asian country?	Bhutan
8	What two capital cities are either side of the River Plate where it meets the Atlantic ocean?	Buenos Aires and Montevideo
9	What stretches for about 96 miles from Exmouth in East Devon to Studland Bay in Dorset?	The Jurassic Coast
10	The Somers Islands are better known as?	Bermuda
11	What is the highest active volcano in Europe?	Mount Etna
12	After Dublin what is the second largest city in (the Republic of) Ireland in terms of population?	Cork
13	The Bridge of No Return is located in Panmunjon and connects what countries?	North Korea and South Korea
14	Mount Ararat is the highest mountain in what country?	Turkey
15	Carrauntoohil is the highest point in which mountain range?	MacGillycuddy's Reeks
16	What two countries lie at either end of the King Fahd Causeway?	Bahrain and Saudi Arabia
17	What town is roughly at the centre of Australia?	Alice Springs
18	In the United States Monument Valley spans two states, what are those states?	Arizona and Utah
19	Belgrade is the capital of which European country?	Serbia
20	Burhou, Les Casquets and Ortac are islands that are part of which group?	Channel Islands
21	Mount Vesuvius overlooks which Italian city?	Naples
22	What two English counties form a land border with Scotland?	Cumbria and Northumberland
23	What is the county town of the Isle of Wight?	Newport
24	What is Canada's largest province?	Quebec
25	How far is it from Aylesbury to Glasgow via the M40, M42, M6 and M74: 349, 371, 398 or 412 miles?	371