

Geography

No.	Question	Answer
1	The river Nile flows into what sea?
2	What is the capital of Afghanistan?
3	Pre-1939 what country was known as Siam
4	What river flows through the Grand Canyon?
5	Kinder Scout is the highest point in what national park?
6	What mountain straddles the Swiss Italian border with Zermatt on the Swiss side and Cervinia on the Italian side?
7	Thimphu is the capital of which Asian country?
8	What two capital cities are either side of the River Plate where it meets the Atlantic ocean?
9	What stretches for about 96 miles from Exmouth in East Devon to Studland Bay in Dorset?
10	The Somers Islands are better known as?
11	What is the highest active volcano in Europe?
12	After Dublin what is the second largest city in (the Republic of) Ireland in terms of population?
13	The Bridge of No Return is located in Panmunjon and connects what countries?
14	Mount Ararat is the highest mountain in what country?
15	Carrauntoohil is the highest point in which mountain range?
16	What two countries lie at either end of the King Fahd Causeway?
17	What town is roughly at the centre of Australia?
18	In the United States Monument Valley spans two states, what are those states?
19	Belgrade is the capital of which European country?
20	Burhou, Les Casquets and Ortac are islands that are part of which group?
21	Mount Vesuvius overlooks which Italian city?
22	What two English counties form a land border with Scotland?
23	What is the county town of the Isle of Wight?
24	What is Canada's largest province?
25	How far is it from Aylesbury to Glasgow via the M40, M42, M6 and M74: 349, 371, 398 or 412 miles?	