STRATFIELD SAYE HOUSE & HENLEY – ON - THAMES

Stratfield Saye has been the elegant and intimate home of the Dukes of Wellington since 1817. The house and gardens offer an intriguing and informative insight into the life of the Grand Duke. Your visit includes a 75- minute tour of the house, when you can view the fascinating collections of paintings and furniture. You can also see the Wellington Exhibition featuring his magnificent funeral carriage and charting his military and political life. There is a café on site.

Henley is just the place to stroll around at the end of the day. A walk by the river is always pleasant but if you are feeling more energetic, there are many interesting historical buildings to see around the Market Square. It also boasts a wide choice of teashops where you can unwind before the journey home.

£37pp (HH members to be advised). The money will be collected at the monthly meeting in July. If you are unable to attend the meeting and wish to go on this trip, please contact Dan McGregor.

DEPART Exchange Street 7.45; Jansel Square, Bedgrove 8.00.

RETURN 6.00 – 6.30 approx.
