Poem for these times

I won't arise and go now, and go to Inisfree
I'll sanitise the doorknob and make a cup of tea.
I won't go down to to the sea again, I won't go out at all,
I'll wander lonely as a cloud from the kitchen to the hall.
There's a green - eyed yellow monster to the north of Kathmandu
But I shan't be seeing him just yet, nor I think will you.
While the dawn comes up like thunder on the road to Mandalay
I'll make my bit of supper and eat it off a tray.
I shall not speed my bonnie boat across the sea to Skye
Or take the rolling English road from Birmingham to Rye.
About the woodland, just right now, I am not free to go
To see the Keep Out posters or the cherry hung with snow
And no, I won't be travelling much, without the realms of gold.
Or get me to Milford Haven. All that's been put on hold.
Give me your hands, I shan't request, albeit we are friends
Nor come within a mile of you, until this lockdown ends.
